

Christmas Lights
Renee Landruss

A mystical season: the lights dazzling bright,
Wind-flickered and fragile, illumine our night,

Shimmer through windows, glitter on snow,
Reflect from our eyes the souls who we know;

Glimmering light strings in concert with stars.
Symbolic of unity, insight is ours.

Each twinkle awareness, repeated or real,
Awaiting your invite for myst'ry reveal.

The season is magic, for all to bestow;
Absorb every light, release afterglow.
